

NCR SILVER® CONSOLE EMPLOYEE MANAGEMENT

Slash labor costs with Silver Console

Ditch the spreadsheet! Integrated with NCR Silver and Silver Pro, Silver Console makes managing your employees a breeze, thanks to auto-scheduling, integrated texting, shift swapping and sales reports.

Save time with stress free staff scheduling and integrated payroll

Silver Console helps you eliminate the headaches involved in staff scheduling, giving you the ability to create employee schedules and distribute them to your staff via email, text messaging or publishing to your employee Silver Console site.

Realize cost savings by improving your scheduling

Silver Console helps you easily budget for projected labor costs when scheduling your staff and overlays sales metrics with labor costs to give you visibility into how much you are spending on labor to drive sales.

Empower your staff and hold them accountable for managing availability and shift swaps

The Silver Console employee site enables your staff to view their time card, upcoming schedule and schedule changes. Staff can easily submit availability requests and manage shift swaps with other staff members. Managers are notified of all staff requests and receive an alert to approve all schedule changes.

Advanced Analytics

Analyzing employee productivity by viewing sales numbers versus hours worked by employee can help you identify areas for training opportunity. Time card discrepancies are also easier to manage by comparing scheduled hours versus actual hours based on time card activity.
